

Lehi City Historical Archives

2013 Synopsis of the great things of the Archives

January 2013

- Moved the books and the Lehi City crews fixed the broken bookcases for us.
- Set the goal of 2,013 photographs and histories in 2013. We met this goal early in December. When we set this goal we did not think we could do it, but it came about.
- We typed up the tour stories of Carl Mellor. He donated his notes and stories to the Archives.
- Started compiling the Original Pioneer Cemetery burials. We have a listing of nearly 50 people who were buried in the cemetery.
- The Friends of the Archives was formed and changed to the Lehi City Historical Archives Board. Initially three people joined the Board.
- The People's Co Op information was greatly increased by the work of Lynette Harris. Her particular interest expanded our files on the Peoples Coop.
- This was the 200th birthday of Porter Rockwell. The first six months of 2013 included BYU classes coming to visit the archives and also other writers. Our collection of information was greatly increased in 2013 by donations and research by the Archives.
- Councilwoman JoAnn Brown collection was donated to the Archives. This was a tremendous collection of photographs, documents dealing with Lehi City History and her service in both the County and the State. JoAnn was the first women city council member in Lehi.
- Judy Hansen donated a large collection of photographs dealing with the tearing down of the old Lehi Hospital.
- Received a collection of Sego Lily Elementary scrapbooks from Carl Mellor. This is a great collection of memorabilia.
- January started our year of the Eagle Scout projects with 3 new starts this month. We started advertising projects and by the years end we had fifteen Eagle Projects completed. We have a new map and plan box, photographs of parts of the cemetery, photograph documentation books of the Transportation Projects of Lehi, church, school and parks, Thanksgiving Point, Outlets at Traverse Mountain, American Fork Canyon, Hutchings Museum, Businesses of Lehi, and trivia listing from the Lehi Yearbooks. These young men have made major contributions to the Archives.

February 2013

- The year started out with 8,000 items in our basic file. On February 4, 2013 we hit 9,000 items. In December 2013 we passed the 15,000 mark. We almost doubled the information we had in 2013.
- Started the Almanac Pages on the Lehi Web Page. We added the listing of Miss Lehis to this page.
- John Haws donated the Messersmith collection of histories and photographs to the Archives.
- Councilmember Michael Southwick got a microfiche reader donated to the Archives.
- We received a collection of Biographies from the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers.
- In February we expanded with a donation of photographs from the Broadbent collection and other photographs within the City. We received a collection of photographs of Porter Rockwell, and a collection of other Lehi sites. Judy Hansen donated photographs of Pykettes and the Gaisford printing shops.
- The Lehi Library and also Lehi High School donated the collection of Lehi High School yearbooks. They were documented and cataloged and added to the collection
- The Lehi Library also donated some other old books and two bookcases to the Archives.

March 2013

- The work in March centered around the new park going in on the site of the Sulphur Springs encampment. We did research on all of the participants at that site. Met with the Lehi Historical Preservation Commission and the Lehi Parks Department on this park. There were stories and histories written on the settlement at Sulphur Springs, biography references to the event and other historical happenings. The Commission will continue to work to make this happen.

- Received a large donation of Library of Congress photographs of the Jordan River Bridge.
- Received a donation of Julian Mercer of his writings for the Daily Herald and his perceptions of the history of Lehi. There were original photographs and other items.
- John Haws donated two original stock documents from the Peoples Sugar Company. (Stock before Utah-Idaho Sugar). Lynette Harris framed them and they are on the wall at the Archives.
- Received documents, pamphlets, newspaper clippings about the Nauvoo Women Statutes being produced in Lehi.
- The Board met and emphasised access to the Public. This still is a problem and needs to be addressed.
- We cataloged and sorted the Utah Historical Quarterlys. We listed all of the articles and placed them in the category files for research basis. Since this initial group, we have received significant donated collections from Woneva Meyers and from Connie Nielson.
- We received a donation of a collection of photographs, stories, histories from the Kirkham family of Idaho Falls. The father was from Lehi originally but is now deceased. It includes a collection of hundreds of photographs of his service in World War II.

April 2013

- John Haws donated 11 volumes of Heart Throbs of the West. This is an early Daughters of the Utah Pioneer books. He also donated the book "When the White House Comes to Zion",
- Russell Felt donated copies of the 3 books of the Diaries of Isaac Fox.

- The Archives received a valuable donation from Sondra Smith. There was a Graduation Exercise program form the Congregation School in Lehi from 1905. There was 1914-1915 Lehi High School Yearbook. This was a yearbook we only had a photocopy of. There was a Literary Guild magazine of Earl Holmstead from January 1931. There were three really old negatives. There was a tribute to Silas Terry, the class president who died while in High School. There was a photograph of Hannah Harrison. There were two old scripts of plays from the High School-College Chums and Snowbound. There was Earl Holmstead's acceptance into the Gamma Phi Sorority at the University of Utah. There was an old photograph of a early baseball park in Lehi. Article on Louis Robinson. There was also a viewing signing book at the death of Earl Holmstead and an early work time book. These are all great artifacts of history and a valuable collection.
- On April 22, the Archives received the largest donation to date. Gary Lewis donated his whole collection of memorabilia of the Lehi Roundup Rodeo and the Civic Improvement Association. This collection is the finest collection of such history around. Gary donated his collection of Rodeo Programs going back beyond the Civic Improvement Association Programs to the Blackhawk Rodeo and programs. He has a collection of Rodeo ribbons used by the Civic Improvement Association. He also donated a collection of Rodeo Posters and a Poster of all the tickets through the ages. It also includes photographs of all the specialty acts of the rodea and Rodeo t shirts and hats. Mayor Wilson and the CIA have committed to build a case for the collection. This is a major collection to the Archives and a fitting tribute to the Civic Improvement Association.
- Received a donation of scrapbook items of Donna Anderson to make into a collector picture history book. This is a new process we are looking to try at the Archives. We are starting with the Lehi Roundup Rodeo and will prepare a picture album with photographs and sell it for a limited edition to only those who pay for it ahead. We will be preparing a draft of this in the next few months.

- Received a donation of 1933 Lehi Free Press talking about the Sugar Days Rodeo and an article by 93 year old Stan Clark talking about the first rodeo. These are some great additions to our Rodeo collection.
- Researched the John Austin and the Parley Austin Cabin. Obtained photographs of the deeds for the property for John Austin original deed and the deed to transfer the property from John Austin to his son Parley. Obtained 46 photographs of the Austin Family. Obtained some 11 photographs of the cabin in its original state.
- Carl Mellor donated a piece of cable of the original telegraph Line. It is a three foot piece with insulators. Carl instructed me on the history of the telegraph line in Lehi. My write-up of his education is located in the Archive files under the Lehi City web Page. It will hang in the Lehi Archives as a tribute to the man who knows more about Lehi History than any other man. The City Crews have hung the wire in the Archives. Carl Mellor also donated a history of Canute Peterson.
- The Archives received a valuable donation from Sondra Smith. There was a Graduation Exercise program form the Congregation School in Lehi from 1905. There was 1914-1915 Lehi High School Yearbook. This was a yearbook we only had a photocopy of. There was a Literary Guild magazine of Earl Holmstead from January 1931. There were three really old negatives. There was a tribute to Silas Terry, the class president who died while in High School. There was a photograph of Hannah Harrison. There were two old scripts of plays from the High School-College Chums and Snowbound. There was Earl Holmstead's acceptance into the Gamma Phi Sorority at the University of Utah. There was an old photograph of a early baseball park in Lehi. Article on Louis Robinson. There was also a viewing signing book at the death of Earl Holmstead and an early work time book. These are all great artifacts of history and a valuable collection.
- DeVere and Karlyn Fowler donated a biography of Mary Jones

Evans Chilton and a historical book on Kate Fowler

- Wyneva Meyers donated three wonderful photographs of the old Cedar Fort Grocery store and a disc with a historical document (500) pages history of Cedar Valley School. The Cedar Forts have recently been increased by several other donations. A collection of Cedar Fort newspaper articles have been added to the Cedar Fort files. Four new Cedar Fort files were added.
- Judy Hansen of the Friends of the Archives donated a History of Tooele County by the DUP, a State Comparison of City's Crime from 1994, an article on the history of the Mormon Battalion. Rhea Lewis of the Friends of the Archives brought some pictures of the destruction of the Lehi High School, the back of Laney's Store the day before it burned down, some pictures of the Civic Improvement Association and the Mt. Timpanogos special edition magazine in connection with the dedication. John Haws donated a 1911 calligraphy thank you to the Cedar Fort Relief Society President signed by all the ladies of the Relief Society and a 1900 wallet owned by Lehi Resident John Broadbent.

- Received some Billing and Receipts from the late 1980's of Lehi businesses including B&K auto, Cash's Western Auto, Maverick, Lehi Drug Co.; GRS drivelines, Palisade Propane, Wasatch Bank, from Clyde Rasmussen.

- Received a box of Music from the Clark Family. It is a collection of antique music from the 1920-1940's. Included in the collection is some rare historical Mormon music books and Music Books from BYU. These are some tremendous assets. A file cabinet is being donated for the collection. It will be here in the next month.
- The American Legion provided a listing that can be used by the Archives to obtain records of those that participated in the recent wars in the Middle East. We are excited for the relationship that is being fostered between the Veterans and the Archives.
- Found two scrapbooks prepared by Richard Van Wagoner on the history of World War II from the files of the local newspapers. It is a tremendous work recently discovered.
- The Jorgensen family of Salt Lake donated a box of memorabilia from the Jordan River Pumping Station and George Knight of Lehi City councilmember and employee at the Jordan River Pumping station.
- Judy Hansen prepared an oral history on the war experiences of Vivian Carter.
- Judy Hansen prepared an oral history on the war experiences of Alvin Schow.

November 2013

- Added the following files to the Web Pages: Utah Territorial Governors, Utah Governors, Lehi American Legion Post Commanders, Utah Historical Quarterly listings.
- Lynette Harris donated photographs and articles about Dallin Harris and his monument to the Olympic torch parade that ran through Lehi. It was unveiled on Feb. 5, 2002 in front of the Legacy Center. It was his Eagle Project and a lasting tribute to the Salt Lake Olympics. There were also photographs of the Olympic torch parade through Lehi and through Camp Floyd.

- Woneva Meyers donated information about Outhouses in the United States.
- Mary Lou Wells donated four wood newspaper picture stamps used in the early days of newspapers in Lehi. There are four different people all of them from Lehi. This is a great addition to the collection.
- Judy Hansen donated 30 photographs of the John Beck Home coming down. Judy Hansen also obtained 5 war biographies of Lehi Residents. These are tremendous stories of World War II.
- Hadfield family donated three more Hadfield Histories
- American Fork Historical Society donated a 1962 Program of the re-dedication of the Alpine Stake Tabernacle.
- Connie Nielson donated a history of her business, Bridal Center celebrating 50 years in business. Connie donated 8 Utah Historical Quarterlies, Newspaper Articles, Old Obituaries, Old Peterson Home description, an original adobe house in Lehi. She also obtained two different aged film strip projectors. This collection was filed and cataloged.
- The friends of Camp Floyd donated some biographies of pioneers in the Lehi area who married Camp Floyd Soldiers. There was also some major research on the Utah War.
- John Knollin Haws donated a bag of used United States stamps.
- We received copies of Photographs of a section of the Lehi Cemetery Headstones.
- John K. Haws Jr. donated a collection of stories of Lehi and Cedar Fort for the Archives.
- Konner Jackman donated over 150 photographs of the Lehi Cemetery.
- Daniel McDonald donated a photographic book documenting Thanksgiving Point. The Photographs also had hard copies and were on a disc.
- Mayor Bert Wilson donated a file of Lehi Roundup Celebration rodeo programs and parade outlines. There were some items about the parade and rodeo that the Archives did not have before.

- The Friends of The Archives Board took a tour of the Buildings and sites of Lehi, learning from one another. It was a very educational event for all.

December 2013

- Cataloged the 15,000 item on Sunday December 8th at 10:27 p.m. I am thrilled with finally meeting this goal.
- Exceeded our 2013 goal of 2013 photographs and History. We met it with hundreds to spare.
- Mrs J.W. Clark donated a box of music. All the music is from the 1880's to the 1940's. The music is being cataloged by title and will be put into a new file cabinet.
- Mrs J.W. Clark donated seven issues of Etude Magazine from 1947-48. She also donated "Concerning Music in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints"; Latter-Day Saints Anthems vol. 1 (1906); Sing the Songs of BYU (1926); Music from the Heber 4th Ward, and one choir music from Alpine Stake from the early 1900's.
- Brent Wagstaff donated a Legal File Cabinet. This will house the Mrs J.W. Clark Music Collection.
- Jay D. Hadfield donated a Wood Holder for blueprints, plans and maps. This was his eagle project. This will hold 48 maps etc. and will hold the tubes to protect them. This is a beautiful solid wood creation for the Archives.
- Russ Felt donated the huge Book- History of Utah by Orson Whitney. Pleasant Grove Jr. High School donated a Book on National Parks.
- Rhea Lewis donated a story about Christmas memories in Lehi that she wrote.
- Edna Loveridge donated the book about the first Blacksmith in Lehi. Joseph Johnson Smith and his family. He was friends with David Evans and came to Lehi because of this friendship.
- John Haws donated the book "The Christmas Orange by Linda Bethers. She is the librarian at the Sego Lily School.

- Broadbents donated a new historical pamphlet about the history of their store.
- Knollin Haws donated the 100th Anniversary Boy Scout Patch to the Archives.
- Colton Kunz donated a photography book of the Outlets at Traverse Mountain.
- All of the Casualties from World War I were typed up for the Lehi Archives veteran files. We are surprised that most died from the Spanish Flu of 1918 only at their Encampments around the country.
- We developed a relationship with the Facebook site “So you think you are from Lehi...” They put memories down of Lehi and the Archives are going to post some of them on our webpage and save them by category in our files. This gets more people involved in the History of Lehi. This is an exciting social network experience for the Archives. We typed up postings on the Lehi Bakery, Wilford Brimley, Gift-A-Rama, Lehi Christmas Parade.
- We held a meeting with the Stakes of Lehi. While the attendance was disappointing, we received a new Board Member-David Brewer. He is employed by the LDS Division of Family History and has a new depth to the board in technology and access of the public. We are excited for the new year. He believes he can obtain a couple of Microfilm machines for the Archives. We already have a microfiche machine.
- Met with Nan and Betty Broadbent about information about the Broadbents store. Made an appointment to meet with them about the donation of the poster of Mr. Broadbent’s mission in England and other Lehi treasures being donated by the Broadbent family. They have had a major impact on Lehi throughout the years. They are excited about being associated with the Lehi Archives. Sent them information about their relatives and stories that we have in the Archives currently.
- Restructured the Biographies on the Web Page to include the 1950 biographies. I typed up twenty-one Biographies from the 1950 History and will start putting them on the web. It will be one of our next goals to complete all these histories now the Mayors stories are completed.

As you can see it has been a tremendous year for the Archives. We hope that this year will be as kind to the Archives.
